Looked at Interests.

P. B. Dreiser, night clerk in the Hotel St. Michael, has returned to his duties after examining his mining interests near Wenden on the A. & C. railroad. He reports that field active at several places with the report in circulation that several camps are to resume.

Stockholders Arrive.

S. Caldwell, of Columbus, Ohio, and John H. Becker, of Chillicothe, Ohio, both stockholders in the Ohio Mines company, of Chaparral, arrived yesterday, and will remain for several days to look after their interests. Mr. Caldwell has been a frequent visitor to the country in recent years.

Fans Lining Up.

The first baseball game of the season was announced yesterday, two teams from the Prescott High School and the Alumni competing for the honor of starting the ball rolling next Saturday at the part grounds in east Prescott. There will be no admission fee charged and the public is invited.

Prosperous Conditions.

J. H. Stephens is in the city from the Tank Creek country, where he has large cattle interests and a big storage dam for watering cattle during the dry months of the summer. He is preparing to take over the Smith cattle purchased a few weeks ago, and states that the delivery will be in a short time.

Visited Brothers.

G. M. D. Akard, after an extended absence in California, visiting with his brothers, T. and John Akard at Azusa, returned yesterday and will make his home in this city. He will follow cattle raising. He states that his two brothers are now actively identified with orange growing in that state, and will not return to this country, acquiring a large domain of land with bearing trees.

Former Resident Returns.

Mrs. Mary Kuechler, who was a resident of Prescott several years ago, is again in the city, arriving from San Francisco. Her husband, Frank Kuechler, passed away at Cape Nome, about nine years ago, and left considerable property in this county, in connection with the probating of which, is the occasion of her present visit. She will return to the coast today.

Leaves for East.

Frank Woodland, who has been in the Congress section during the winter for the benefit of his health, passed through yesterday for Xenia, Ohio, receiving the sad news that his brother, Elmer, had passed away from tuberculosis. After his return he will reside in this city, spending last summer with beneficial results to his health in the pines along the Copper Basin road.

Prominent Visitors.

Mrs. E. G. Stevenson and daughter of Detroit, were arrivals in the city yesterday, while en route from the coast to their home, and will remain for a few days the guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Hope. Mr. Stevenson is one of the leading attorneys of Michigan, and in addition to that distinction, is the head of the Foresters of the World, a fraternal organization. Mrs. Stevenson and daughter are making a circuit of the globe, and after a brief stop at Detroit, will leave for a tour of Europe this summer.

(From Friday's Daily.)

Mining Visitor.

John Curran, interested with T. G. Norris in the Zulu group of mines, near Walker, is in the city on business, and reports that field as passing through a very active career.

Returns From Visit.

Mrs. T. H. McCarthy, of McCabe, who has been visiting at Mojave, Cal., for several weeks, returned yesterday, accompanied by her daughter, Mrs. S. B. McAuley, and will leave today for home.

Leaves for Jessie.

S. Caldwell and J. H. Becker, stockholders of the Ohio Mines company, who arrived a few days ago from the east, left yesterday for the Jessie mines to remain for a few days to investigate conditions.

Joins Husband.

Mrs. Paul C. Keefe, who has been a guest at Hotel St. Michael for several days, left yesterday for the Crosby mines on the Santa Maria, to join her husband, where he is in charge of the assaying and metallurgical department. Mrs. Keefe's departure is regretted by many friends.

Introduces New Blood.

J. H. Stephens left yesterday for Phoenix, where he will receive a shipment of fifty head of graded white-faced Hereford bulls from Texas, which are to be parceled out to other rangers in this section. Mr. Stephens retains a majority of the animal and they will be turned loose on the range immediately after their arrival.

Outlook Favorable.

George L. Human, blacksmith and lumber merchant of Dewey, was an arrival in the city yesterday, and reports a general revival in all industries in that section in the last few months. He anticipates a lively year.

Up to Date Official.

E. W. Marlowe, forest ranger of the Camp Wood district, arrived in the city yesterday on his motorcycle. He patrols the range with that equipment, and is the first official in the service to introduce this method of getting around the zone he has charge of.

Death of Child.

Nora, the eight weeks old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. S. F. Swain, passed away yesterday after a short illness and will be buried this afternoon from the home of the parents on North Granite street. Interment will be in the Citizens' Cemetery, under the direction of Lester Ruffner. The bereaved parents have the sympathy of many friends in their sad loss.

Returns Home.

Arthur W. Whittaker, road foreman of the Jerome district, after a business visit of several days, returned home yesterday. He is an enthusiastic promoter of wagon road building between Prescott and Jerome and while here had many enthusiastic supporters of the movement to support him in advocating the building of the route at the earliest possible date.

Inspected Mining Interests.

H. William Stevens, general manager of the White Cloud Mines company, after several days of an examination of the property, has returned to the city, and gives an excellent account of development under way. At the present time operations are centered on the 400-foot level, where the showing continues good. The contract system has been abandoned, and hereafter the company will perform all development. He is well satisfied with general conditions at his camp.

Daughter Recovering.

The many friends in the city of Miss Reba Shumate who has been in Los Angeles for several weeks, seriously ill, will be pleased to learn that she is rapidly recovering, and will return home in a few weeks. Her mother, Mrs. Ed. Shumate, who has been in attendance on her, arrived yesterday, bringing this information.

Wanted Cheap Board.

Mike O'Neill, who is accused of leaving a board bill unpaid at Humboldt, and got as far as Jerome Junction, was caught at that place Wednesday afternoon by Deputy Sheriff Campbell, and taken back to the starting point. Judge Francis looked into the case and O'Neill was brought to this city yesterday for thirty days to continue his course of having meals served without paying for them.

Returns from South.

J. P. Dillon, identified with the Fortune Mining company, whose valuable interests are located on Big Bug creek, returned yesterday from Louisiana, accompanied by several stockholders, and with the party will leave today for the works to make an examination. Operations have been inaugurated on a small scale, but later the intention is to start large exploration with a full force of miners.

Will Probably Resume.

After personal investigation of several days at the works of the American Copper and Gold Mining company, more familiarly known as the Iron King mines, R. J. Bell, of New York city, vice president, returned to the city yesterday and left in the afternoon for the east. He inspected the property with the view of making arrangements for resumption at an early date, and is said to have been impressed with the possibilities of the property. He was accompanied to the city by S. R. Trengrove, superintendent, who will return to the camp today.

Returns to Arizona.

After an absence of over five years, Arthur Cordiner, formerly a popular business man of this city and Jerome, has returned from Ely, Nevada, and passed through the city to take charge of the Fashion at Jerome. He assumes charge immediately of this popular resort and will remain permanently. In a few weeks he will be joined by his wife and family. Jerome Hoover, his business partner, at present is residing in Los Angeles, and will not return to Arizona. Mr. Cordiner gives a gloomy outlook of Nevada, which he states is passing through a period of inactivity in mining, with business conditions depressing everywhere. He received a cordial greeting at the depot from many friends.

(From Saturday's Daily.)

Phoenix Divine to Preach.

Rev. Bertrand R. Cocks of Phoenix will preach in St. Luke's church tomorrow.

Returns From South.

John Pool returned yesterday from the Ray camp in Pinal county, and will reside here during the summer.

Visiting Friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Heap left yesterday for Jerome, the former on business and the latter to visit with friends for a few days.

Goes to Mohave.

T. G. Norris left yesterday morning for Kingman where he is called on litigation before the district court that convenes next week.

Leave the City.

Mrs. J. E. Schmidt and sons, Samuel and Louis, left yesterday for Hannibal, Missouri, their former home, where they will reside.

Returns to Camp.

Lester Jackson, operating the War Eagle-Gladiator mines in the Bradshaws, will return to his camp today, after a week in the city on legal matters.

Visits Old Home.

Mrs. Mary Kuechler left yesterday for Jerome, her old home, where she will visit with friends for a few days, before returning to San Francisco, where she is residing.

Fulfilled Sd Duty.

C. T. Joslin, who was called to Los Angeles a few weeks ago to attend the funeral of his mother, returned yesterday and has resumed his duties with the Arizona Mine Supply company as its president.

Major Doran Returns.

Major A. J. Doran, superintendent of the Pioneers Home, after an extended recuperating trip along the coast of Southern California, returned yesterday and has again assumed charge of the institution.

Game Called Off.

The baseball game to be played today between the High School and Alumni nines, has been abandoned, on account of lack of practice. The grounds are being fixed for the league season, and a date will be announced later for the amateurs to entertain their friends.

Visited Capital City.

L. P. Vallett, the genial host of Hotel Congress, has returned from a business trip to Phoenix, and states that discussion over the constitution has given way to that of prohibition. In harmony with the approaching warm weather, the new issue almost borders on a white heat.

Assumes Charge.

C. T. Willis and family are due to arrive in the city today from Phoenix, and will proceed to Fair Oaks, where the former has purchased an interest in the Maus & Stewart orchard lands. Mr. Willis was formerly a resident of Prescott, and will have supervision of that famous orchard.

Pleased at Showing.

H. J. Corman, with the Golden Gate mine of H. L. Sweeney in the Black Hills, arrived yesterday and gives a good account of work accomplished on that property during the past few weeks. He has formed a very good impression of the mine, and states that there is considerable activity in that region.

Concludes Business.

Charles E. Nathorst, mining man, after several days in the city on litigation, affecting the estate of the late Frank Kuechler, of which he is the administrator, left yesterday for San Francisco where he is identified with mining. He contemplates returning to this field later and expressed himself favorably over the outlook.

Returns Home.

President W. C. Alvord, of the Northern Arizona Baseball league, left yesterday for Williams, Flagstaff and Winslow, to make final arrangements for starting those teams along the circuit on the 30th of this month. The meeting of league officers will take place during the coming week, which will complete the organization.

Mr. Parsons Improves.

Dr. R. N. Looney, who accompanied W. C. Parsons to San Francisco a few days ago, in the hope that the sea level would prove beneficial to the latter's heart troubles, arrived home yesterday and conveys the pleasing news that his patient was benefited by the lower elevation and had materially improved. Mr. Parsons' many friends in this section will be pleased to learn this news.

Activity Continues.

Joe Swigert, operating mines near Walker, was in the city yesterday on business, and will return to his camp today. He states that the many mines under lease continue development, and generally speaking the district is fast entering a productive state that indicates a desirable future. He will return home today, and contemplates making a shipment of ore soon.

Rodeo to Start.

In a letter from his Horseshoe ranch on lower Agua Fria, George C.

Ruffner states that beginning the latter part of next week the annual spring rodeo will be started in that section. He also conveys the information that the last of the three water storage dams for his range interests have been completed and all three are filled with water, which guarantees his cattle a wide range of country to feed during the dry months.

Moving Rapidly.

The Homeseekers' committee of the Chamber of Commerce were taken to Iron Springs yesterday in R. M. Ling's and J. C. Stephens' autos to make an examination of the character of buildings used at that resort, and to ascertain other data necessary for carrying out a line of action this summer for the Prescott enterprise that has been decided upon to entertain and care for tourists. In the committee were Dr. J. W. Flinn, H. D. Aitken, C. E. Gentry, C. A. Peter, Jr., and J. L. Archambeau. O. F. Orthel and E. Brown, architects, accompanied the party.

SECURES JUDGMENT.

(From Saturday's Daily.)

In a continuance of the case of Lester Jackson against the H. J. Beemer company, heard in the district court yesterday, plaintiff was given judgment in the sum of $5,800. The evidence showed that Mr. Jackson asked of plaintiff either a one-tenth interest in the Storm Cloud group of mines, or a commission of ten per cent in the sale that was made to defendant, on the basis of $58,000 that was paid. The non-payment of either resulted and the litigation ensued. Mr. Beemer since legal proceedings were started, is alleged to have gone insane and is now an inmate of an institution in Canada. Mr. Jackson was the mining engineer of the defendant and negotiated the sale.

QUAIL WILL BE PLENTIFUL

(From Saturday's Daily.)

Russ Warner, representative of the Remington company, when in the city a few days ago, made an interesting statement regarding the hunting prospects for the coming season. Quail and other birds know instinctively when the feed will be poor on account of dry season and last year did not mate to any extent, but could be found all spring in coveys. In consequence there were few young quail last season and hunting was not up to the usual high standard.

This year already promises to surpass many for feed of all kinds. Mr. Warner has made many inquiries and elicited the fact that quail are mating everywhere in the Territory. This promises excellent shooting for the coming fall season. It also augurs well for stock and farming interests.

READY TO SINK.

(From Saturday's Daily.)

Geo. P. Harrington, general manager of the Nelson Mining company, which is to start development immediately, arrived from his camp near Crown King yesterday, saying that all surface improvements are completed and the new hoist in place. He authorizes the statement that bids will be received for sinking a shaft to a depth of 200 feet. Mr. Harrington also conveys the information that the Bradshaw region is assuming more interest than in many years, and says there are more mines producing and developing than is generally known.

UNWATERING MINE.

(From Saturday's Daily.)

The unwatering of the U. S. Navy mine at Copper Basin, according to a statement made yesterday by A. L. Finch who arrived from the camp, has reached a point about 250 feet deep and it is believed will be completed to sufficient depth for an examination within the coming week. George C. Meese, who is to take the property over, is at the works directing operations. The mine carries heavy lead and zinc values and is under option of sale to Dave Biles of this city.

TWO DIVORCES GRANTED

(From Thursday's Daily.)

In the district court yesterday, divorces were granted Sarah Ann Holder from John Holder, and Luetta Rinsched from John H. Rinsched. In the suit of J. J. Becker against C. E. Nathorst, involving interests of the late Frank Kuechler, briefs were ordered to be filed at a future date.

DOG SHOW AT SPRINGFIELD

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., March 30.—Five hundred of the best dogs in the central west were put on show at the State Arsenal today, the occasion being the annual exhibition of the Springfield Kennel club. The show will last three days.
